Graduation 1994

Anthony Scott Alexander, Ruth Ann Helton, Jim Hinton, and Rodney Gilmore. "What a way to go" Shelia White, Mike Hailey, and Erin Glaggett.

Graduation is always a very exciting time. The students pictured on these pages smile and look happy; yet, we know that they have many thoughts and questions about the future on their minds. Some of those thoughts may include, "How did I ever make it through all those classes?" and "What do I do now?" and "Can I make it on my own?"

One of these happy students could be our future president, a famous actor, or even a rocket scientist. No one knows what the future holds for these graduating seniors. The sky's the limit for them. One of the things that we do know is that they have had some wonderful, happy, and maybe even sad experiences here at Delta State.

"Friends until the end and beyond," say Kendall Andrews and Tyrone Jackson.

John Armstrong, Jobie Maynor, Win Loudon, Robert Lyon, Melissa McKellar, and Matt Denton are dressed for success.

Mia Reeves, Larry Wood, Drew Herndon, and Clifton Griffin are all smiles as they think of their future.

Letha Sanders and Nina Coppage give Graduation Day a "thumbs up."

Sheila Hamer, Antonio Celica, Willie Allen, Myron Steps, and Christopher Hudson say, "If this is what college is like, I think I'm going to love it!"

SGA President Rob Armour initiates two freshman into the ways of DSU.

Trust, what a wonderful thing!

Melanie Vaughn, Shanda Ray, Heather McMin, Kaby Higgins, Michelle Vunk, Ford Moore, Mike Shackelford, and Tori Armour are fast becoming friends.

A Orientation counselor discusses the many aspects of DSU life with his group.

Hungry freshmen enjoy a picnic lunch in front of the cafeteria.

As the petrified faces of many new students gazed onto the campus of DSU, everyone could sense that the freshman had arrived. This year Delta State had an outstanding orientation program with activities ranging from musical skits to scavenger hunts. The orientation staff, who worked long and hard on the programs, were ready to move into action as they opened their ceremonies with a unique version of Tom Petty's, "Mary Jane's Last Dance". As the morning progressed, the students learned more and more about the history of Delta State University and why they had chosen "The Best Kept Secret of Mississippi."

The Delta Belles 'strut their stuff.

This year Delta State brings back everyone's favorite Homecoming activity — The Homecoming Parade. The route of the parade started at a local service station on Fifth Avenue and ended around the quad. The DSU cheerleaders and the band, including performances by the Delta Belles and the flag corps, livened up the parade. Fraternity and sorority groups, along with other campus organizations including athletic teams and various clubs, decorated floats to be driven in the parade. Float winners were: First Place-Kappa Sigma's presidential float, Second Place-Zeta Tau Alpha's 50's float, Third Place-Pi Kappa Alpha's tribute to the Marshall Plan.

The DSU mascot entertains the crowd.

Delta State University had an outstanding spirit week this year. Everywhere on campus was occupied by a different event. The week started with many activities set up in the State Room of the Union. One could be a human velcro fly, a larger than life boxing star, or a gigantic bungee cord within twenty minutes if desired. The week continued with various events held in the Whitfield Gymnasium. The activities ranged from arm wrestling to the male homecoming court.

All of the performances, whether macho or meek, had screaming fans cheering on the contestants. The week ended with the annual homecoming parade which was brought back this year by student demand. The parade included numerous entries by different campus groups. Also involved in the Homecoming Day activities were the Delta State Cheerleaders chanting out those victorious cheers of excitement. As the crowd joined in the action became more exhilarating after the Pi Kappa Alpha Fraternity, who showed up looking their best, skyrocketed the DSU mascot up in the air while everyone watched from the sidewalks. The program finally ended as the football coach and some of his star players gave their final words of enthusiasm to the fans. This year Homecoming was a wonderful success not only because of the hilarious events, but rather the true hearted Statemens of DSU who showed their support throughout the week.

Ye Olde Madrigal Feaste

Delta State University Department of Music presented its 11th "Ye Olde Madrigal Christmase Feaste" on December 2 and 3. The dinner event has become a Delta tradition in its brief history at DSU. The Feaste is set in 1520 A.D. Those attending the event are guests of the King and Queen (played by John Brindley and Tennie Lester, pictured at right) in the Great Hall of the castle. The evening abounds with entertainment, fun and festive merriment.

DSU music students and faculty provide the entertainment. Popular carols and traditional madrigal selections are sung by the DSU Chorus. Other program features were a brass quintet, harpsichord music, and a skit entitled "Fools Fall in Love." John Carroll (also pictured at right) portrays the court jester.

Entertainers and the Royal Party were dressed in the colorful regalia of the period. The Great Hall was decorated with greenery, banners, tapestry, and flaming candles. The menu was a bountiful 16th century holiday feast that included traditional favorites such as wassail and plum pludding.

Dedication

With our appreciation for his outstanding efforts on behalf of the students, faculty, and staff of Delta State University, the 1995 ROOM is proudly dedicated to Mr. Terry Everett, Assistant Professor in the Department of Languages and Literature. As a member of the English faculty for 26 years, Mr. Everett has worked constantly to maintain the highest level of teacher proficiency. His dedication to his work and love of learning can be seen in all that he does. This semester, Mr. Everett was successful in bringing an innovative new class to DSU, Native American Literature. Mr. Everett holds a B.S.E. and M.S.E. from Arkansas State University and a Ph.D. from the University of Mississippi. He belongs to the MS Council of Teachers of English, the MS Philological Association, and the MLA. In 1988, he served as President of the Southern Literary Festival Association.

Homecoming 94

Saturday, November 15, 1994 was an afternoon that will not be forgotten by many true hearted Statesmen for a long time; however, Jennie Morehead will never forget the feeling that came over her as she was awarded the title that seperated her from every other student on the DSU campus. As Morehead took the field with three other senior Homecoming Queen finalists during the halftime activities, everyone anxiously awaited to see which girl would be choosen. Being Homecoming Queen at Delta State is a rather unique experience, not only because of the title itself, but because the student body are the voters in the competition. Finally, after what seemed like eternity, the results were announced over the intercoms, and Ms. Jennie Morehead stepped forward to receive her crown as Delta State Universities 1994 Homecoming Queen.

Homecoming Queen Jenni Morehead, a senior from Greenville, was crowned Queen at the halftime festivities. Billy Griffin, Morehead's father and escort, joined her after the coronation ceremony.

DSU's Most Beautiful '94

This year was a very special one for Kelly Housley, especially on the night of November 3rd. Housley competed with thirty-two other young ladies for the title of Most Beautiful. Needless to say, Kelly Housley was crowned Most Beautiful. Alternates were Leigh Anna Herring, Lela Sayle, Michelle Schoggen, and Mandy Parker. The annual competition was held in the Broom Auditorium. Mrs. Linda Ross and her planning committee did an outstanding job with pre-pageant preparations. As the final night arrived everyone packed inside the auditorium to see who the winners would be. Special entertainment was provided by Rachel Rawlinson, Brian Amason, and Barbi Jones. Ms DSU, Angela Vickers, performed an exciting dance routine to a popular favorite from the Flashdance soundtrack. Master of ceremonies for the evening was DSU Registrar and Director of Admissions, James Donald Cooper.

Angela Vickers, a junior from Jackson, was crowned Miss Delta State University in a pageant held last March. Chosen as alternates in the pageant were Julie Jackson of Hernando, 1st Alternate and Belinda Bonner of Clarksdale, 2nd Alternate.

Other contestants included Mischa Norris of Southaven, LaNelle Williams of Clarksdale, Sarah Rives and Lori Bobo, both of Cleveland.

The seven contestants competed in four phases with talent counting forty percent, interview counting thirty percent, and evening wear and swimsuit each counting fifteen percent.

Entertainment was provided by DSU students Jenni Thompkins, Kelley Heatherly, Stephen Gross, Gary McCrory, Kevin Carnathan, and Robyn McGonagill Meredith.

Master of Ceremonies for the evening was Mr. James Donald Cooper, DSU registrar. The pageant is coordinated by executive director Linda Ross, along with a committee of nine students, and a special advisory committee consisting of faculty and staff members.

Delta Playhouse

This year, Delta Playhouse celebrated 25 years of performances in Jobe auditorium. On October 19-21, Delta Playhouse presented two one-act plays written by DSU graduate Randall Perri, "A World of Light and Shadow" and "Voices at the Window." The cast of "A World of Light and Shadow" included Damon Hogben as Ancel James and Brent Powell as Neil Camaletti. "Voices at the Window" included Morgan Dean as Phillip, Elizabeth Sullivan as Elizabeth, John Carroll as Jared, and Unika Howell as Lola. Director for Delta Playhouse is Richard Strahan. In February, Delta Playhouse staged a reunion production of the first ever Delta Playhouse performance "Bell, Book, and Candle." The original cast returned for the performance.

Bid Day 94

Students At Play!

From the Ground Up. . .

From the Ground Up is the only phrase that sums up DSU's twenty-million dollar plus campus construction and renovation projects. By the time school started this year, landscaping crews and various other companies filled the campus streets with backhoes, bulldozers, and other construction machines that built our campus into what it is today. The Legislature approved a 1.6 million dollar bond for the improvement of the landscaping and damaged telephone systems. The state's law makers also appropriated 2.2 million dollars for a new building to house historical documents from the entire Delta region. Other issues passed were 3.2 million dollars to be used on Broom Halls renovation, 4.5 million dollars for additions to be made on the W.B. Roberts Library, and an incredible 7.8 million dollars for the construction of the brand new Performing Arts Center. Even though the ice storm took its toll on Delta State, the state of Mississippi has taken considerable measures to make our campus look the best it ever has.

Statesmen Bring The Bell Home

Freshman Bobby Parnell (44) takes down a East Texas quarterback, with the help of Marlon Palmer (54).

Parnell and Palmer celebrate after their successful sack.

The Delta State football program, under the direction of Head Coach Todd Knight, started off slowly this year going 0-3-2 through the first five games of the season.

The Statesmen showed improvement in the second half of the season, however, by getting their first win in the sixth game over East Texas State. This started the building process in what ended up as a winning record for the last five games as they went 3-2 only losing to two nationally ranked teams. The Statesmen finished the season at 3-5-2 overall, 2-4-1 in the Gulf South Conference. The highlights of the season were the victory at Homecoming and the 14-0 win over Mississippi College in the Heritage Bell Classic to bring the Heritage Bell back to DSU.

Kevin Pearce (17) blocks an opponent while Brian Williams (21) tries to gain some yardage.

Free safety Henry Johnson returns a fumble 71 yards for a touchdown in the Northwestern Louisiana game.

Defensive end Frederick Burns (35) makes a grab for an UNA opponent with the assistance of Marlon Palmer (54).

The 1994 baseball season was one that will not soon be forgotten at Delta State, as the Statesmen posted a school-record 45 wins and tied for third at the NCAA Division II Championship in Montgomery, Alabama.

Despite the season's thrilling conclusion that included six wins on the brink of elimination, a conference tournament championship, a South Central Regional crown and a eight-run win over eventual national champion Central Missouri State in the national championship tournament, the season was not always one of guts and glory for the Statesmen. The season started rather mildly, as DSU brought back just seven regulars and imported 21 newcomers to the club in the preseason, and then posted a modest 6-8 record through its first 14 games.

Individual honors also abounded for different members of the team. DSU pitcher Bubba Dixon was named Div. II Pitcher of the Year, First Team All-American, National Championship All-Tournament Team, All-GSC, and many other honors. Dixon was drafted to the San Diego Padres.

Tony Montgomery was named South Central Regional Tournament MVP and South Central Regional All-Tournament. Jason Page was named National Championship All-Tournament Team, and One-Time GSC Player of the Week.

Other honors went out to Gary Enis, Jason Cumberland, Jeff Gregg, Spencer Holman, Marc Taylor, Jason Thompson, Mark Wasson, and Jake Yarborough.

Coach Bill Marchant was named South Central Region Coach of the Year.

DSU SOFTBALL

Under the direction of John Garriss, the Delta State softball team improved their standards this season. With a 24-25 overall record, compared to 8-24 last season, the team has made great strides on the field. The team pulled itself up on the charts by finishing 4th overall in the conference. The team also added to their accomplishments by setting a new school record for number of season wins.

DSU Swimming

Susan Wheeler counts laps for a fellow teammate.

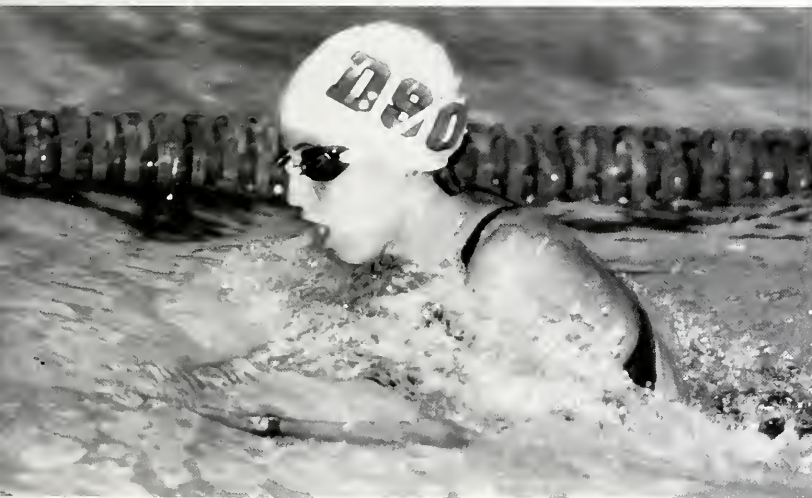

Tanya McAdory gets ready for a relay while an opponent looks on.

Marilyn Truly, Christina Schroeder, and Katherine Keller cheer their teammates on.

This has been an exciting season for DSU's swim team. One of the many highlights of the year was when the team finished ninth in the two-hundred butterfly and one-hundred butterfly races at the NCAP Div. II finals. The women's and men's teams combined efforts broke five New South Intercollegiate Swim League records and nine school records. The women also earned a Second Place trophy and the men earned a Third Place trophy.

Renaissance Spagetti Supper

Banding Together

This page: 1. Lori Alexander seems to be enjoying her moments in the stands.

2. Yoko Ucnida and Mary Zarembo concentrate on the action on the field.

3. Marc Doss practices his drumming technique.

Next page: 1. The DSU Drum Line is looking good!

2. The Flag Corps show their true colors at the Homecoming Parade.

3. This tuba player looks happy to be a part of the DSU Marching Band.

4. Courtney Caldwell and Kelli Wingert show one of the rewards of the band — developing great friendships.

Renaissance Candids

Colophon

The 1995 edition of the Broom was printed by Taylor Publishing Company of Dallas, Texas for Delta State University.

"A View From Within," the yearbook theme, was developed by editor Dee Horn. It is used on all division pages.

Type specifications used throughout the book are Garamond on body copy, captions, folios, and index listings and Garamond Bold on headlines. Special type faces of Garamond Bold, Garamond Bold Italic, and Garamond Condensed were used on division pages.

The cover is a Green 239 Mission and Smooth grain combination, embossed with Gold Mylar. The cover was designed by editor Dee Horn. Two hundred and eight pages of enamel 80 paper and Smyth binding preserve the yearbook.

Various column artwork used throughout the book was taken from the cover design. Crown artwork used on the Miss DSU pageant was by staff member Keri Collier.

Endsheets are Ivory Felt Grain with the DSU seal stamped in 100% Deep Green #23. One signature each of color and spot color was used in the Feature and Campus Life section.

Bill Powell serves as adviser for the yearbook.

Editor's Closing

This year, my last at DSU, has definitely been one to remember. I've made many new friends and have had some wonderful times at DSU. My two years at Delta State have been an important part of my life. I hope that I, along with the rest of my staff, have been able to recapture some of the moments that make this campus so special. I couldn't have brought you all of this without some very special help. First of all, thanks goes to my family, without their support and love none of this would have been possible. Next, thanks to my staff and to Bill for all of their help. I'd also like to thank all of my friends here at DSU, especially my Voices sisters. A very special thank you goes to Donnie for making me laugh when I definitely needed to. I leave it all in your very capable hands. Finally, I like to thank you, the students of DSU. Without your love and dedication to your school, none of this would be quite right.
